

IRISH BRED

PUB & GRILL

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE IRISH BRED PUB

OK. So what's the deal with the KISS THIS logo? That little leprechaun with his butt showing tells you everything you need to know about the Irish Bred Pub.

First of all because of the naked butt we are R rated. That means we don't want any snot nosed little kids in here or even teenagers for that matter. I love kids. I raised two of them and if you go to our website you can see a picture of me and my grandson. Kids have plenty of places to go and be rid of adults. Adults need a place to go and be rid of kids. If you want to go out with your kids there are plenty of places to go – Applebees, Long Horns, Outback, McDonalds and on and on. But if you want a break from the little monsters, come to the Irish Bred Pub.

The next thing our little naked leprechaun says about us is that we are unique. If you can find a place in Atlanta that has better Chicken Wings, a better Hamburger, or a better Rueben than ours, then you can eat ours for free. Now, how's that for unique. If you want to go to a chain bar or restaurant that's ok, there's lots of them to chose from, but if you want a truly UNIQUE experience then come to the Irish Bred and get to know the whole gang.

The last thing our little leprechaun is saying about us is fun. Now what the heck does fun mean? The problem with FUN is it's different for everyone. I'm sure there are some tight-asses out there that won't find us fun. That's ok I'm sure you will still enjoy the cold beer and food. But for all of you non tight-asses out there who are stuck in the rut of going to dinner at a chain restaurant and then to a movie for fun, try the Irish Bred and we'll show you how to have some real fun.

Oh by the way, we also love to do:
